

Sentences

Spelling List C-21

Ending in -ar, -er, and -or

1. Madison wants to be a professional swimmer when she grows up.
2. The singer has an incredible voice.
3. Amelia's dad has a really good sense of humor.
4. "Do you have a dollar I could borrow?" Chad asked Michael.
5. Mrs. Peach added white vinegar to the recipe.
6. Our new puppy is very clever. She already knows how to sit and stay.
7. Benjamin Franklin was an American inventor.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

13. Brady pretended to be a shipwrecked sailor who landed on a deserted island.
14. "You kids are too young to watch horror movies," Grandma told David and Sam.
15. The mouse in my cupboard was an unexpected—and unwelcome—visitor in my house.

❖ Review Words ❖

16. I haven't decided what I'd like to order from the menu.
17. I would've called to tell you I was running late, but I couldn't find my phone.
18. Do you know if Mr. and Mrs. Barrow said they're coming to the party?

★ Challenge Words ★

19. The milk goes in the refrigerator.
20. A caterpillar will someday turn into a butterfly.