

Ahoy Matey!

As of today, yer officially a pirate aboard me ship! Ye orders is to think up a creative pirate story! Yer story should be filled with adventure, fun, and some treasure too.

Try to use as many pirate words as ye can in yer story. Normally, grammar be very important to good writing,

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

or walk the plank!

Sincerely,
The Cap'n

P.S. I forgot to mention, we be a band of friendly, safe pirates, who don't use any weapons, so make sure nobody gets hurt in your story.

Pirate Words

Ahoy! - Hey! or Hello!

Avast! - Stop! sentence: Avast! Ye shall go no further!

Aye! - Yes!

booty - treasure

cap'n - shortened form of the word captain crow's nest - small platform near the top of a sail; pirates climb up here to look around doubloons - gold coins found in a treasure chest sentence: Thar be jewels and doubloons in this chest.

galley - kitchen on a boat

pirate in a crow's nest

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

scallywag - scoundrel; bad person sentence: You can't take me ship, scallywag!

shipshape - very neat and organized; sentence: I want this deck shipshape by sundown!

Shiver me timbers! - I can't believe it!

spyglass - telescope for looking around; sentence: The cap'n saw a ship through his spyglass.

swab - to clean sentence: The pirate swabbed the deck.

thar - pirate's word for there; sentence: Look over thar, mate!

ye - you; sentence: Ye better keep a lookout for sharks!

yer - your or you're; sentence: Yer the bravest pirate I've ever met.

Yo ho ho! - pirate's laughter

Title: _____

Author: _____

---

---

---

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

---

---

---

page number: _____