

Name: _____

Action Verbs

An action verb tells what the subject of the sentence is doing.

examples: run, hop, skip, sleep, jump, talk, snore, go, sleep

Matt ran to the store.

Ran is the action verb because it tells what Matt was doing.

Directions: Circle the action verb in each sentence.

1. The doorbell rang loudly.
2. I forgot my book in my desk.
3. Timmy walks to school everyday.
4. Michael rides his bicycle everywhere.
5. You can find extra towels in the drawer.
6. The children played in the yard today.
7. We watched a movie in childcare yesterday.
8. Make sure to eat breakfast before school.
9. The dog found his toy under the bed.
10. Hannah told us all about her vacation.
11. Suzy ate sandwiches everyday for lunch.
12. Kate read a book to her little brother.

Name: _____

ANSWER KEY

Action Verbs

An action verb tells what the subject of the sentence is doing.

examples: run, hop, skip, sleep, jump, talk, snore, go, sleep

Matt ran to the store.

Ran is the action verb because it tells what Matt was doing.

Directions: Circle the action verb in each sentence.

1. The doorbell rang loudly.
2. I forgot my book in my desk.
3. Timmy walks to school everyday.
4. Michael rides his bicycle everywhere.
5. You can find extra towels in the drawer.
6. The children played in the yard today.
7. We watched a movie in childcare yesterday.
8. Make sure to eat breakfast before school.
9. The dog found his toy under the bed.
10. Hannah told us all about her vacation.
11. Suzy ate sandwiches everyday for lunch.
12. Kate read a book to her little brother.