

Name: _____

Verbs

A verb is a word which expresses action or being.

An action verb tells what the subject of the sentence is doing.

examples: jumped, walking, drinking, goes

sentence: Marla goes to the store.

A linking verb or being verb joins the subject and predicate of a sentence.

examples: am, is, are, was, were sentence: Matt was at the store.

Directions: Read each set of words. Determine which word is the verb and write it on the line.

1. walk after boot candy _____
2. tastes dice finger easy _____
3. crayon hair stays into _____
4. jail remains key door _____
5. looks my nickel pail _____
6. eat boat goat hole _____
7. mouse pink needs oar _____
8. is jar king letter _____
9. art break daily cookie _____
10. wall you smells zoo _____
11. tail uncle vine appears _____

Name: _____

Verbs

A verb is a word which expresses action or being.

An action verb tells what the subject of the sentence is doing.

examples: jumped, walking, drinking, goes

sentence: Marla goes to the store.

A linking verb or being verb joins the subject and predicate of a sentence.

examples: am, is, are, was, were

sentence: Matt was at the store.

Directions: Read each set of words. Determine which word is the verb and write it on the line.

1. walk after boot candy walk
2. tastes dice finger easy tastes
3. crayon hair stays into stays
4. jail remains key door remains
5. looks my nickel pail looks
6. eat boat goat hole eat
7. mouse pink needs oar needs
8. is jar king letter is
9. art break daily cookie break
10. wall you smells zoo smells
11. tail uncle vine appears appears