

Name: _____

Advanced Use of Articles: a and an

Use the word a before nouns or adjectives that begin with a consonant sound.

I listened to a terrific song on the radio.

Use the word an before nouns or adjectives that begin with a vowel sound.

I saw an exciting movie last night.

Sometimes a word can begin with a vowel, but start with a consonant sound. When this happens you use a.

Inches are a unit of measurement on a ruler.

The word unit begins with the consonant y-sound (yoo-nit), so you would use the article a.

Sometimes a word will begin with a silent consonant, but a vowel sound. When this happens you use an.

Mr. Bolivia is an honest man.

Even though honest begins with a consonant, the h is silent. The word begins with a vowel sound, so you would use an.
