What am I?

Long ago, I was a food eaten only by poor people in Italy. Today, I am a popular food that is eaten all over the world. I may be one of your favorite foods.

What am I?

A queen of Italy made me popular. Her name was Queen Margherita. She tasted me and loved me. Other people wanted to eat what the queen ate. They tasted and loved me too.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

People in the United States started to eat me
just over one hundred years ago. They eat me for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. I can be a tasty snack too.

I am usually made in a circle shape. People often cut me into triangle shapes to eat me.

What am I?

A woman named Rose Totino began to make, freeze, and sell me. It became easy for people to buy, bake, and eat me.

What am I?

I am made with bread, tomatoes, and cheese. Many people like to put pepperoni on me. People put other meat, vegetables, and toppings on me too.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

I am pizza.

