

Name: _____

Its or It's? It's So Confusing!

by Chris Conroy

Just remember these simple rules:

If you can replace the word with "it is" or "it has", you always use the apostrophe!

The word its is used when something belongs to or is associated with something.

example 1: The dog ate its bone. (The bone belongs to the dog)

The word it's is the contraction for the words it is or it has.

example 2: It's (It is) a beautiful day today!
