

Name: _____

Prepositions

A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and some other word in the sentence.

Some common prepositions include: about, after, against, before, below, by, during, from, in, near, of, over, on, past, to, upon, and with.

The object of a preposition is the noun or pronoun that follows the preposition.

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with the object of the preposition.

example: George leaned against the tree.

The preposition is against.

The object of the preposition is tree.

The prepositional phrase is against the tree.

Identify the p

1. Rosie v

The pre

The ob

The prepositional phrase is _____.

2. Judy put her toys under the bed.

The preposition is _____.

The object of the preposition is _____.

The prepositional phrase is _____.

3. There are four books in the bin.

The preposition is _____.

The object of the preposition is _____.

The prepositional phrase is _____.

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

ANSWER KEY

Prepositions

A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and some other word in the sentence.

Some common prepositions include: about, after, against, before, below, by, during, from, in, near, of, over, on, past, to, upon, and with.

The object of a preposition is the noun or pronoun that follows the preposition.

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition and ends with the object of the preposition.

example: George leaned against the tree.

The preposition is against.

The object of the preposition is tree.

The prepositional phrase is against the tree.

Identify the p

1. Rosie v

The pr

The object of the preposition is street.

The prepositional phrase is across the street.

2. Judy put her toys under the bed.

The preposition is under.

The object of the preposition is bed.

The prepositional phrase is under the bed.

3. There are four books in the bin.

The preposition is in.

The object of the preposition is bin.

The prepositional phrase is in the bin.

