

Name: _____

Types of Sentences

Statements, or telling sentences, end with a period.

Questions, or asking sentences, end with a question mark. (?)

Sentences that show excitement end with an exclamation point. (!)

Directions: Read each sentence. Decide what kind of sentence it is. Write statement, question or exclamation on the line.

1. Are prairie dogs really dogs? _____
2. Warm bread smells good. _____
3. I love the zoo! _____
4. What is the name of your school? _____
5. What color is your bike? _____
6. Listen to that thunder! _____
7. A foot of snow fell today. _____
8. My friend's name is Julie. _____
9. This puzzle is very hard. _____
10. What is your dog's name? _____
11. Watch out! _____
12. What is your favorite holiday? _____

Name: _____

Punctuation

ANSWER KEY

Statements, or telling sentences, end with a period.

Questions, or asking sentences, end with a question mark. (?)

Sentences that show excitement end with an exclamation point. (!)

Directions: Read each sentence. Decide what kind of sentence it is. Write statement, question or exclamation on the line.

1. Are prairie dogs really dogs? question
2. Warm bread smells good. statement
3. I love the zoo! exclamation
4. What is the name of your school? question
5. What color is your bike? question
6. Listen to that thunder! exclamation
7. A foot of snow fell today. statement
8. My friend's name is Julie. statement
9. This puzzle is very hard. statement
10. What is your dog's name? question
11. Watch out! exclamation
12. What is your favorite holiday? question