101 New Pets for Aunt Lee

by Susan Manzke

Cindy loved animals. Every day she went to help Aunt Lee feed her two pet chickens, Molly and Lulu.

Today Aunt Lee had a surprise. "Guess what, Cindy? I have 101 new pets. Do you want to see?"

"Wow! Do you have 101 hens like Molly and Lulu?" Cindy asked.

Aunt Lee shook her head. "My yard isn't big enough for 101 chickens."

Cindy looked everywhere. "Where are your new pets, Aunt Lee?"

"Right here." Aunt Lee pointed to a round box. "See the tiny holes in the top and sides. My pets need fresh air."

Cindy looked at the box.

"They are... they are..."

"Do they have wings?"

"No."

"Do they bark or meow?"

"No. They don't say anything."

"Do they have four legs?"

"They don't have any legs. They turn banana peels into soil. Can you guess what my pets are?"

Cindy shook her head.

Aunt Lee opened the box. "They are worms! Do you want to hold one?"

"No, thank you." Cindy put her hands behind her back. "Maybe later, but call me if you get a kitten."
