Max, Pop, and Grams sat on the couch. "Let's put on a puppet show," Max suggested.

Pop's nose wrinkled up like a slinky. "A puppet show? But we don't have any puppets!"

Max glanced around the room. He grabbed a sock out of Grams' clean laundry basket. "We could use one of these!" he said.

"A sock?" Pop asked. "What else?"

"What now?" Pop asked.

"We need to make hair," Max said.

Pop snapped his fingers. "I have just the thing!" He dug in his tackle box and came out with a wiggly lure. They pinned the lure above the eyes.

"What next?" Grams asked.

Max pulled the sock onto his hand. He opened and closed his fingers.

"Hello," he said. "I'm Mr. Sock!" Pop and Grams laughed.

Max, Pop, and Grams made two more sock puppets, and together they put on a puppet show.
