

Name: _____

Grandma's Attic

By B. J. Lee

We love to stay at Grandma's house.
She has an attic room.
The stairs are steep, the shadows deep,
and round the room they zoom.

How can we know it's car lights
that are making scary shapes?
We run down to the couch to sleep –
so many close escapes!

Name: _____

Grandma's Attic

By B. J. Lee

1. What is an attic?

- a. a room below a house
- b. a small outdoor building near a house
- c. an open space above a house
- d. a scary area of a house

2. Write two pairs of words that rhyme in this poem.

_____ and _____

_____ and _____

3. What does the main character of the poem see when he or she tries to sleep?

- a. moving shadows
- b. moving ghosts
- c. moving pictures
- d. moving furniture

4. How does the main character in the poem solve his or her problem?

_____

_____

Name: _____

Grandma's Attic

By B. J. Lee

1. What is an attic? c
  - a. a room below a house
  - b. a small outdoor building near a house
  - c. an open space above a house
  - d. a scary area of a house

2. Write two pairs of words that rhyme in this poem.

room and zoom

shapes and escapes

3. What does the main character of the poem see when he or she tries to sleep?
  - a. moving shadows
  - b. moving ghosts
  - c. moving pictures
  - d. moving furniture

4. How does the main character in the poem solve his or her problem?

He or she goes to sleep on the couch.