

Name: _____

Helping Verbs

Sometimes a verb cannot work alone. It needs a helper. These helpers are called helping verbs.

examples: am, is, are, was, were, will, would, can, could, has, have, had, may, might

We are walking to the park.

The word walking is the main verb. The word are is a helping verb.

The word walking wouldn't make sense in the sentence without a helping verb.

Underline the main verb in each sentence and circle the helping verb.

1. I am going hiking next Saturday.
2. My father and my brother, George, are coming with me.
3. We have gathered all the equipment we need.
4. We will walk for almost ten miles.
5. The three of us might sing while we walk.
6. We can eat our energy bars.
7. I am looking forward to this trip.
8. Martin and his parents were watching dogs play.
9. His parents were choosing a dog from the city animal shelter.
10. Martin would help with the decision.
11. I can whistle.
12. Can you whistle?
13. Lisa was chirping like a bird.
14. Cole is making bird sounds too.

ANSWER KEY

Helping Verbs

Sometimes a verb cannot work alone. It needs a helper. These helpers are called helping verbs.

examples: am, is, are, was, were, will, would, can, could, has, have, had, may, might

We are walking to the park.

The word walking is the main verb. The word are is a helping verb.

The word walking wouldn't make sense in the sentence without a helping verb.

Underline the main verb in each sentence and circle the helping verb.

1. I am going hiking next Saturday.
2. My father and my brother, George, are coming with me.
3. We have gathered all the equipment we need.
4. We will walk for almost ten miles.
5. The three of us might sing while we walk.
6. We can eat our energy bars.
7. I am looking forward to this trip.
8. Martin and his parents were watching dogs play.
9. His parents were choosing a dog from the city animal shelter.
10. Martin would help with the decision.
11. I can whistle.
12. Can you whistle?
13. Lisa was chirping like a bird.
14. Cole is making bird sounds too.

