An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

Usually an adjective comes immediately before the noun it describes.
example: A small troll stood by the bridge.
The word small is an adjective. It describes the noun, troll.

Sometimes an adjective comes after the noun.
example: The elf in the workshop was funny.
The adjective funny describes the noun, elf.

3. The unicorn ran into the dark forest.

4. The ogre standing by the tree is angry.

5. The wicked witch was flying on a broomstick.

6. Two giants live in the countryside.

7. The monster under my bed is furry.
ANSWER KEY

Adjectives

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

Usually an adjective comes immediately before the noun it describes.

6. Two giants live in the countryside.

7. The monster under my bed is furry.