Read the poem below and look for adjectives. Underline the adjectives with a red crayon.

The Adjective Store
by Lill Pluta

Do you need an adjective? Ours are all on sale.
Glamorous and gloomy. Funny, fierce, and frail.
Quirky, quaint, and quiet. Tender, true, and tart.
Rusty, rough, and rotten. Shaggy, sweet, and smart.

We can find an adjective to match with any noun.
Your descriptive writing will become the best in town!
1. Write an adjective from the poem that is a synonym for each pair of words.

   weak; delicate enchanting; beautiful tangy; sour

2. Write an adjective from the poem that is an antonym for each pair of words.

   secure; tight serious; unamusing meek; timid cheery; peppy
   old; antiquated

3. Give an example of alliteration from the poem.

   ____________________________

4. Give an example of rhyme from the poem.

   ____________________________ and ____________________________
Read the poem below and look for adjectives. Underline the adjectives with a red crayon.

The Adjective Store

by Lill Pluta

Do you need an adjective? Ours are all on sale.

Glamorous and gloomy. Funny, fierce, and frail.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.
1. Write an adjective from the poem that is a synonym for each pair of words.

   - weak; delicate: frail
   - enchanting; beautiful: glamorous

2. Write an adjective from the poem that is an antonym for each pair of words.

   - secure; tight: loose
   - serious; unamusing: funny
   - meek; timid: bold
   - cheery; peppy: gloomy
   - old; antiquated: new

3. Give an example of alliteration from the poem. Answers may vary. Examples include, “Noisy, new, and nervous” and “Bumpy, blue, and bold.”

4. Give an example of rhyme from the poem. Answers may vary. Examples include, “mild/wild,” “sale/frail,” and “noun/town.”