About the Classroom Friends Game

The “Classroom Friends Game” is a terrific activity for helping students become comfortable with their new classmates. To play, students must find friends who meet the given criteria and add their names to the list.

- Students can list each classmate only once on the worksheet.
- Encourage students to spell names correctly. When they find a friend to add to their sheet, they should ask the friend how to spell their first name.
- Encourage neatness. Insisting that students demonstrate their best handwriting from the very beginning of the year sets a good precedent.
