Literature Circle: Real-Life Connector

Think about two specific events that happened in the story. For each event, tell how something similar has happened to you (or someone else) in real life.

Event from the Story #1: ____________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Event from the Story #2: ____________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Real-Life Connection: _____________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________