1. How did Nurse Farthing react to Henry's situation?
   a. nervously
   b. frantically
   c. calmly
   d. excitedly

2. What did Dr. Fargo think someone was eating in his office?
   a. peppermints
   b. candy bar
   c. chips
   d. egg salad

3. The laboratory determined Henry's spots were ___________________________________.
   Dr. Fargo named his "new disease" ____________________________________________ .

4. How did Henry react to the news of his new condition? What did he do?
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________

5. Why did Henry start crying in the garage?
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________
1. How did Nurse Farthing react to Henry's situation?
   a. nervously
   b. frantically
   c. calmly
   d. excitedly

2. What did Dr. Fargo think someone was eating in his office?
   a. peppermints
   b. candy bar
   c. chips
   d. egg salad

3. The laboratory determined Henry's spots were chocolate.

4. Dr. Fargo named his new disease Chocolate Fever.

5. How did Henry react to the news of his new condition? What did he do? Henry didn't take the news well. He was tired and afraid and he decided he needed to run. So he ran as far away from the hospital as he could get.

6. Why did Henry start crying in the garage? Henry started crying in the garage because he was sad, and he was lost, and everything seemed very hopeless to him.