1. Circle the words that describe how the boys in the schoolyard acted toward Henry.

friendly  mean  interested  understanding  caring laughed  helpful  excited  bullied  name calling

2. How did Henry get the boys to leave him alone?
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________

3. Why was Henry worried when Mac turned on the lights? How did Mac react?
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________

4. What did Henry and Mac realize they have in common?
   a. a rare disease                      b. they’re both running away
   c. same age                            d. people stare at them

5. How did Mac convince Henry to call his parents?
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
1. Circle the words that describe how the boys in the schoolyard acted toward Henry. [friendly, mean, interested, understanding, caring, laughed, helpful, excited, bullied, name calling]

2. How did Henry get the boys to leave him alone? Henry got the boys to leave him alone by telling them he had a very rare and mysterious disease, and if anyone touched him they would die a horrible death. The thought of becoming like Henry scared the boys enough that they opened up their circle and let Henry pass through.

3. Why was Henry worried when Mac turned on the lights? How did Mac react? Henry was worried when Mac turned on the lights because he would notice the spots on his body and want him to leave his truck. However, Mac didn’t seem to mind. Instead, he was more concerned with what to eat than Henry’s appearance.

4. What did Henry and Mac realize they have in common? [a rare disease, they’re both running away, same age, people stare at them]

5. How did Mac convince Henry to call his parents? Mac helped to remind Henry that he had good parents, who loved him, didn’t make his life miserable, and were probably worried sick. So he should really call to let them know he is okay.