1. How do you think John really felt about going to Susan's party?

____________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

2. What happened to the water, and to John and Susan when John bobbed for apples?

____________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3. What was strange about the candy store when John tried to take his father there?

a. It wasn’t there.

b. It was closed.

c. It sold vegetables.

d. Only John could see it.

4. What events occurred after Dr. Cranium gave John Dr. Cranium's Elixir?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

5. What name did Dr. Cranium give to John's sickness?

a. Chocolate Fever

b. John's Disease

c. Chocolate Touch

d. Cranium Disease
ANSWER KEY

The Chocolate TOUCH
Chapters 9 - 10

1. How do you think John really felt about going to Susan's party?
   Even though John said he didn't care about Susan's party and that he didn't want to go, John didn't mean that. John actually wanted to go to the party but he was upset and had his feelings hurt because he believed that Susan wasn't going to invite him. So John was just saying that.

2. What happened to the water, and to John and Susan when John bobbed for apples?
   When Susan and John bobbed for apples the water quickly turned to a chocolate syrup as soon as John put his head in. When they pulled their heads up their faces were covered with chocolate, it was in their eyes and it dripped down the front of their clothes.

3. What was strange about the candy store when John tried to take his father there?
   - It wasn't there.
   - It was closed.
   - It sold vegetables.
   - Only John could see it.

4. What events occurred after Dr. Cranium gave John Dr. Cranium's Elixir?
   After Dr. Cranium gave John the elixir the spoon turned to chocolate once it hit his lips, and the medicine also turned to chocolate. John choked on the chocolate and it came flying out of his mouth. In shock Dr. Cranium dropped the spoon and it broke into chocolate pieces.

5. What name did Dr. Cranium give to John's sickness?
   - Chocolate Fever
   - John's Disease
   - Chocolate Touch
   - Cranium Disease

~PREVIEW~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.