

Name: _____

Use with the book:
Hatchet by Gary Paulsen

Hatchet Vocabulary

Chapter 18–Epilogue

1. Which definition below best fits capacity?

“He pulled air again and again, pushing his chest out until he could not possibly get any more capacity, then took one more deep lungful, wheeled and dove again.”

- a. having many different kinds
- b. the amount of something

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

- c. cockpit
- d. tail

4. Which scenario below best illustrates the meaning of substantial?

- a. She had only a few close friends whom she always confided in.
- b. His collection was incredible; he had over 2,000 baseball cards.
- c. The recipe was simple and required only a few basic ingredients.
- d. The difference between his and her test scores was only half a point.

5. Fill in the blank in the sentence below.

She was so focused on her book that she was completely _____ to the loud noises around her.

- a. obnoxious
- b. obsessed
- c. furor
- d. oblivious

Name: _____

Use with the book:
Hatchet by Gary Paulsen

Hatchet Vocabulary

Chapter 18–Epilogue

6. Which word below fits the definition:

the cover for a knife

- a. pity
- b. fuselage
- c. sheath
- d. transmitter

7. Fill in the blank:

“I heard your emergency _____—then I saw the plane when I came over...”

“For a brief time the press made much of Brian and he was interviewed for several networks but the furor died within a few months.”

- a. His incredible play on the field seemed to go unnoticed by the news.
- b. The movie star couple was on every magazine cover and every late-night talk show for weeks.
- c. Her parents were so proud of her for making the honor roll.
- d. His primary goal and focus were to obtain a full-ride scholarship to college.

10. Which word below is a synonym for variety?

- a. diversity
- b. similarity
- c. homogeneity
- d. likeness

Hatchet Vocabulary

Chapter 18–Epilogue

1. Which definition below best fits capacity?

“He pulled air again and again, pushing his chest out until he could not possibly get any more capacity, then took one more deep lungful, wheeled and dove again.”

2.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

3.

4.

5.

a. obnoxious

b. obsessed

c. furor

d. oblivious

Hatchet Vocabulary

Chapter 18–Epilogue

6. Which word below fits the definition:
the cover for a knife

10. Which word below is a synonym for variety?

- a. diversity
- b. similarity
- c. homogeneity
- d. likeness