Think about two specific events that happened in the story. For each event, tell how something similar has happened to you (or someone else) in real life.

Event from the Story #1:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Real-Life Connection:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Event from the Story #2:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Real-Life Connection:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________