Number the Stars

Chapters 12–14

In chapter 12, Annemarie has to wait back at the farmhouse. She describes waiting to see if everyone made it to Uncle Henrik's boat as "less dangerous, but more fearful." If Ellen Rosen told this chapter's events from her point of view, how would it be different? What thoughts or feelings would she be experiencing as she and her parents made their way through the woods to Uncle Henrik's boat? Use what you know about Ellen's character to support your answer. Be sure to use complete sentences.
