Thinking About the Story

THE BOXCAR CHILDREN

Chapters 1 - 3

Imagine this book took place in present day. Tell how the children would survive? Where would they sleep? How and when would they travel? What would they do to get food? Use you imagination, be creative, and think of a plan.

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________