1. At the end of Chapter 4, what had the children done for the first time in four days?
   - a. bathed
   - b. ate
   - c. changed clothes
   - d. slept at night

2. What types of treasures were the children searching for?

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

3. Who did Henry work for while he was in town?
   - a. a baker
   - b. a doctor
   - c. a lawyer
   - d. a policeman

4. What did Henry do to make money? How often would he be working?

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

5. Who is Watch? Why did the children think he heard something in the woods?

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
1. At the end of Chapter 4, what had the children done for the first time in four days?
   - b. ate
   - c. changed clothes
   - d. slept at night

2. What types of treasures were the children searching for?
   - The types of treasures the children were searching for were old plates, cups, and utensils that the children could use to eat off of and drink out of.

3. Who did Henry work for while he was in town?
   - b. a baker
   - c. a lawyer
   - d. a policeman

4. What did Henry do to make money? How often would he be working?
   - To make money Henry cut grass for the doctor. The doctor told Henry he could give him work everyday.

5. Who is Watch? Why did the children think he heard something in the woods?
   - Watch is the dog the children found in the woods. The children thought he heard something because he was growling in the boxcar and would not lie down to sleep.