Chester plays a song that reminds mama of happy memories when she was younger. Is there a song that reminds you of a memory? What song is it? Describe the time, place or people it makes you think of.

_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________