The Outsiders: Chapters 1–2

The Outsiders is told from a first-person point of view. Cite quotes from chapters 1–2 to explain how this helps readers better understand Ponyboy. Give brief context for each quote. Then describe how the first-person narration helps reveal Ponyboy's thoughts and feelings. An example has been done for you.

Quote	Explanation
"I got pretty scared—I'm kind of small for fourteen even though I have a good build, and those guys were bigger than me."	• Ponyboy is walking home from the movies when a Corvair pulls up. • The P.O.V. leaves no doubt that he is scared of the boys in the car and very aware of himself and his surroundings.
