The Outsiders

Chapter 6

"I swear, you three are the bravest kids I've seen in a long time. First you and the black-haired kid climbing in that window, and then the tough-looking kid going back in to save him. Mrs. O'Briant and I think you were sent straight from heaven. Or are you just professional heroes or something?"

- a teacher praising Ponyboy, Johnny, and Dally after the fire

Situational irony is a literary device where what happens is the opposite of what is expected. Analyze how this moment creates irony. How does the teacher's description of the boys
