To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 15-17

In chapter 16, Mr. Dolphus Raymond is described through the observations of Scout, Jem, and Dill. Analyze how the author's use of perspective, dialogue, word choice, and other literary devices and elements helps to develop the scene and reveal the community's attitudes about race and belonging. Make sure to explain how and why people judge Mr. Dolphus Raymond and his children, as well as what this judgment suggests about the community at large. Support your analysis with specific quotations and other evidence from the text.
