To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 17-18

Although information about Bob and Mayella Ewell is present throughout the text, a significant amount of characterization occurs in chapters 17 and 18. Explain their differing characterizations in these chapters. How is each character depicted through their speech, actions, and appearances? Are there any similarities? How does the author use these characterizations to shape readers' understanding of the story's conflict? Incorporate at least two pieces of textual evidence per character into your response.
