To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 21–23

Using evidence from chapters 21 and 22, identify two ways in which the African American community in Maycomb shows respect to Atticus. Even after the trial is lost, why do they still demonstrate their appreciation for Atticus? How do they do so? What does Atticus's reaction to their acts of gratitude reveal about his own characterization? Incorporate at least three pieces of textual evidence in your response.
