

Name: _____

Use with the book:
To Kill a Mockingbird
by Harper Lee

To Kill a Mockingbird: Chapters 9–11

In chapter 9, readers learn that Aunt Alexandra and Atticus view many issues differently. Imagine they are having a discussion. Use what is revealed through their own words and actions, as well as what is revealed about them through other characters, to summarize each person's point of view.

Atticus's Perspective	Aunt Alexandra's Perspective
	I think boys and girls should be raised differently. Girls should be "ladylike" and play with tea sets. They should wear pearls and dresses, not overalls. They should be little rays of sunshine: quiet, helpful, and calm.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

People deserve equal respect no matter their religion, race, or skin color. Tom Robinson deserves fair legal representation. I do not care what people think of me; I want to follow my values and do what is right.
	Children must be exposed only to people who come from equally respectable families. I would never allow my grandson to hang around someone like Dill Harris, who is essentially homeless. It is shameful to allow Jem and Scout to play with someone so far beneath our station.

ANSWER KEY

Use with the book:
To Kill a Mockingbird
by Harper Lee

To Kill a Mockingbird: Chapters 9–11

In chapter 9, readers learn that Aunt Alexandra and Atticus view many issues differently. Imagine they are having a discussion. Use what is revealed through their own words and actions, as well as what is revealed about them through other characters, to summarize each person's point of view.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

An example is: My children are free to be friends with anyone, as long as they are respectful. Teaching my children kindness is the most important thing. I would never want them to look down on someone for things they cannot control. Dill Harris is a good person, and that is all that matters.

Children must be exposed only to people who come from equally respectable families. I would never allow my grandson to hang around someone like Dill Harris, who is essentially homeless. It is shameful to allow Jem and Scout to play with someone so far beneath our station.