

Name: _____

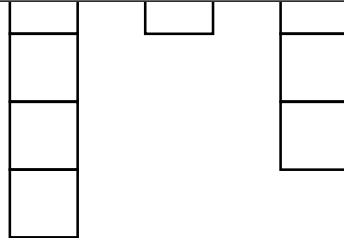

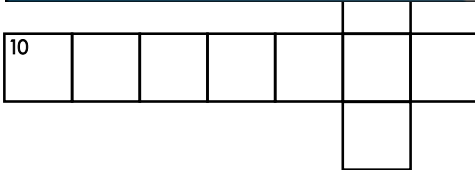

To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 28–31

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

DOWN:

1. one's manner of walking
3. antonym for refusal; disagreement
4. antonym for limited
5. antonym for emotionally
6. singular; alone
7. sneakily plotted; purposefully failed to act against something wrong

ACROSS:

2. A sudden _____ in Ainhoa's hand made her drop her phone.
5. Ms. Tessa's high heels clacked sharp _____ sounds down the hall.
8. extreme shame or embarrassment
9. synonym for phantom
10. claimed without definitive proof

To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 28–31

Vocabulary Words

haint

mortification

stolidly

solitary

staccato

connived

gait

untrammelled

acquiescence

alleged spasm

Preview
Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

To Kill a Mockingbird

Chapters 28–31

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

DOWN:

1. one's manner of walking
3. antonym for refusal; disagreement
4. antonym for limited
5. antonym for emotionally
6. singular; alone
7. sneakily plotted; purposefully failed to act against something wrong

ACROSS:

2. A sudden _____ in Ainhoa's hand made her drop her phone.
5. Ms. Tessa's high heels clacked sharp _____ sounds down the hall.
8. extreme shame or embarrassment
9. synonym for phantom
10. claimed without definitive proof