1. What three things happened on Nick and Janet's walk home from school?
   - Janet found a fancy, gold ballpoint pen
   - Nick suddenly understood what Mrs. Granger was saying
   - Instead of saying pen he said frindle

2. How did Nick put his plan into action at the Penny Pantry store?
The next morning he put his plan into action by asking the woman at the Penny Pantry store for a frindle. When she was unsure as to what it was, he pointed to the pens and asked for a black frindle. Different students continued to ask for frindle's until it became clear that a frindle was a pen.

3. Instead of "cheese" what did the 5th grade kids say and do when their class picture was being taken? Why did the picture have to stay that way?
   Instead of saying cheese, all the fifth grade students said frindle and held up their pens. The picture had to remain like that because the photographer was out of film and could not do a retake.
4. What did Pete and Nick try to get every kid in 5th grade to ask Mrs. Granger? What was the result of this?

The boys tried to get every student in 5th grade to walk up to Mrs. Granger and ask if they could borrow a frindle. As a result, almost eighty kids stayed after school that day with Mrs. Granger as a punishment and had to write, “I am writing this punishment with a pen.”

5. What was the purpose of Mrs. Chatham’s visit to Nick’s parents house?

a. to expel Nick from school
b. to tell how Nick has been in trouble
c. to congratulate Nick
d. to stop the spread of frindle

6. Who came to the school to talk to Mrs. Chatham and Mrs. Granger?

a. a reporter
b. Nick’s parents
c. a lawyer
d. a group of students

7. The next morning Judy Morgan received something when she was at work. What was it and what were some things that she noticed?

When Judy Morgan was at work she received a brown paper envelope that contained the 5th grade class picture. She noticed that each student was holding up a pen and their mouths were saying frindle. She also realized that the red headed boy she spoke to in the parking lot the day before was indeed Nick Allen.
