Literature Circle: Real-Life Connector

Think about two specific events that happened in the story. For each event, tell how something similar has happened to you (or someone else) in real life.

Event from the Story #1: ____________________________________________

Real-Life Connection: ____________________________________________

Event from the Story #2: ____________________________________________

Real-Life Connection: ____________________________________________

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.