1. How did the Senses Taker distract Milo, Tock and Humbug from their mission?

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

2. When Milo’s bag of gifts fell to the ground and the package of ________________ broke open and the air was filled with ________________. The Senses Taker’s spell was broken.

3. PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

4. Milo confessed he felt guilty that he did not get to Rhyme and Reason quicker because he made so many mistakes. What did Reason tell him about making mistakes?

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________
5. In Chapter 18, Rhyme said to Milo:

“What you learn today, for no reason at all, will help you discover all the wonderful secrets of tomorrow.”

What do you think Rhyme meant by this statement?

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

6. Just as the demons were about to catch up with Milo and his friends, they abruptly stopped. What caused this?

a. Milo made it out of the Mountains of Ignorance in time.
b. The armies of Wisdom were waiting at the base of the mountain.
c. Rhyme and Reason cast a protection spell over them.
d. Milo used one of his gifts to stop them.

7. What did King Azaz reveal to Milo about his quest? It was the one thing he said he could not tell him until he returned.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

8. Describe the kingdom after Rhyme and Reason returned.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
9. Milo’s journey had come to an end and it was time for him to return home. After depositing a coin in the tollbooth where did he end up? How long was he gone?

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

10. What disappointing discovery did Milo make when he returned home from school the next day?

a. The tollbooth was gone.
b. He could no longer remember his journey.
d. The demons from the Mountain of Ignorance had returned.
e. Rhyme and Reason did not bring order back to the kingdom.

11. Even though Milo was sad after reading his final letter, what did he suddenly realize while he was looking out of his window?

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

12. Milo is very different at the beginning of the story compared to the end of the story. Compare Milo in the beginning to Milo in the end. What lesson did he learn?

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________________________

Super Teacher Worksheets - www.superteacherworksheets.com
1. How did the Senses Taker distract Milo, Tock and Humbug from their mission?

He distracted them by appealing to each one's sense. Milo saw a large circus in the distance, Tock smelled the good smells wafting from it, and Humbug heard the cheers and shouts of the people. Each one became engrossed and forgetting the real reason they came.

2. When Milo's bag of gifts fell to the ground and the package of sound broke open and the air was filled with laughter. The Senses Taker's spell was broken.

3. Describe Rhyme and Reason.

- Rhyme
  - beautiful
  - quiet
  - grave
  - understanding

- Reason
  - beautiful
  - happy
  - joyful
  - sparkle in her eyes

4. Milo confessed he felt guilty that he did not get to Rhyme and Reason quicker because he made so many mistakes. What did Reason tell him about making mistakes?

She told him you must never feel bad about making mistakes as long as you learn from them. Many times you learn more by being wrong for the right reasons than you do by being right for the wrong reasons.
5. In Chapter 18, Rhyme said to Milo:

“What you learn today, for no reason at all, will help you discover all the wonderful secrets of tomorrow.”

She was trying to tell him that the knowledge you learn when you are young may seem useless at the time, but having it will lead you to places you never thought possible in the future. (Answers will vary).

6. Just as the demons were about to catch up with Milo and friends they abruptly stopped. What caused this?

a. They made it out of the Mountains of Ignorance in time.
b. The armies of Wisdom were waiting at the base of the mountain.
c. Rhyme and Reason cast a protection spell over them.
d. Milo used one of his gifts to stop them.

7. What did King Azaz reveal to Milo about his quest?

It was the one thing he said he could not tell him until he returned.

He told Milo that the one thing he could not tell him until he returned was that his journey was impossible. If King Azaz told Milo that before he left he may not have tried, and, as they discovered, many things are possible as long as you know their not impossible.

8. Describe the kingdom after Rhyme and Reason returned.

The kingdom was all working together. Every night the Mathemagician would have large firework displays that exploded numbers. The colors were provided from Chroma the Great, and the sound produced from Dr. Dischord. King Azaz ordered large feasts with any words and letters imaginable, and after dinner songs and poems were recited about the great rescuers of Rhyme and Reason.

~PREVIEW~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
9. Milo’s journey had come to an end, and it was time for him to return home. After depositing a coin in the tollbooth where did he end up? How long was he gone?

After going through the tollbooth Milo appeared back in his own room. It was 6:00 the very same day. What seemed like weeks of being away was really only an hour.

10. What disappointing discovery did Milo make when he returned home from school the next day?
   a. The tollbooth was gone.
   b. He could no longer remember his journey.
   c. The demons from the Mountain of Ignorance had returned.
   d. Rhyme and Reason did not bring order back to the kingdom.

11. Even though Milo was sad after reading his final letter, what did he suddenly realize while he was looking out of his window?

   Milo suddenly realized that although the tollbooth was gone, and he couldn’t travel to far away lands, the world outside his window suddenly seemed quite different. He now knew there was so much to see, hear, and touch right in his own backyard. Most of all, that within his own room there were books that could take you anywhere, teach you new things to build and invent, music to play, and words to imagine and make real.

12. Milo is very different at the beginning of the story compared to the end of the story. Compare Milo in the beginning to Milo in the end.

   What lesson did he learn?

   In the beginning of the story Milo is bored with everything. He hates school, and he hates learning. He thinks everything is a waste of his time and learning is the biggest waste of time of it all. Nothing excites or amuses him. At the end of the story Milo has completely changed. He now loves adventure and seeks out new challenges. He is enthralled by knowledge and wants to learn and experience new things. In the end Milo learned that life is worth discovering, and that knowledge is the most valuable tool we can ever possess because it can take you places you never thought possible.