

Name: _____

Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing

Chapters 3 and 4

1. Why did Peter's mother want Peter to stand on his head?

2. When Fudge wouldn't eat, Peter's mom took Fudge to Dr. Cone's office. What did Dr. Cone say was wrong with Fudge?

3.

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

4. Central Park...

- a. is a very safe place for Peter and his friends.
- b. can be a dangerous place for Peter if he's not careful.
- c. is a place where people never go.

5. Peter has two classmates from school that live near him. What are their names?

6. Why did Peter's mother have to leave the park for ten minutes?

7. How did Fudge lose his two front teeth?

ANSWER KEY

Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing

Chapters 3 and 4

1. Why did Peter's mother want Peter to stand on his head?

It would make Fudge laugh. When he would laugh, she could put food in his mouth.

2. When Fudge wouldn't eat, Peter's mom took Fudge to Dr. Cone's office. What did Dr. Cone say was wrong with Fudge?

He said nothing was wrong with him.

3. How did Peter's father solve the problem of Fudge not eating his dinner?

4.

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

5. Peter has two classmates from school that live near him. What are their names?

Sheila and Jimmy

6. Why did Peter's mother have to leave the park for ten minutes?

She forgot to turn the oven on.

7. How did Fudge lose his two front teeth?

Peter, Jimmy, and Sheila were supposed to be watching Fudge, but they were horsing around. Fudge tried to fly from the top of a jungle gym. He fell and his teeth came out.