Fill in an effect for each of the causes below.

1. The children were bored. ____________________________

2. All the frogs jumped high. ____________________________

3. David did not study. ________________________________

4. Our house is old. ________________________________

5. It was cold on Thursday. __________________________

6. We heard a parade. ________________________________

7. Grandma told funny jokes. __________________________

8. Our cat Tiny sat in the sun. __________________________

9. My homework was hard. ____________________________

10. Their Dad was late. ______________________________

11. The teacher was yelling. __________________________

12. Five dogs were barking. __________________________

13. Gerry’s CD player broke. __________________________

14. Everyone was hungry. ____________________________

15. Two cars crashed. ________________________________
Cause and Effect

Fill in an effect for each of the causes below.  ANSWERS WILL VARY.

1. The children were bored.  They did not pay attention.

2. All the frogs jumped high.  ____________________________________________

3. David did not study.  _________________________________________________________________

4. Our house is old.  ______________________________________________________ ______________

5. It was cold on Thursday.  _____________________________________________________________

6. We heard a parade.  ________________________________________________________________

7. Grandma told funny jokes.  __________________________________________________________

8. Our cat Tiny sat in the sun.  ___________________________________________________________

9. My homework was hard.  ____________________________________________________________

10. Their Dad was late.  __________________________________________________________________

11. The teacher was yelling.  _____________________________________________________________

12. Five dogs were barking.  _____________________________________________________________

13. Gerry's CD player broke.  ____________________________________________________________

14. Everyone was hungry.  Mom began to cook dinner.

15. Two cars crashed.  The traffic was backed up.

Super Teacher Worksheets - www.superteacherworksheets.com

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.