Fact or Opinion

A fact is something that is true or can be proven. An opinion is your feelings or how someone else feels about a topic.

example:

music

Fact: The violin is a stringed instrument.

Opinion: Jazz is the most beautiful type of music.

Write one fact and one opinion for each topic.

1. candy

Fact: ________________________________

Opinion: ________________________________

2. tree

Fact: ________________________________

Opinion: ________________________________

3. monkey

Fact: ________________________________

Opinion: ________________________________

4. carrot

Fact: ________________________________

Opinion: ________________________________

Example:

Fact: ________________________________

Opinion: ________________________________
Fact or Opinion

5. Australia

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

6. bird

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

7. pizza

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

8. piano

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

9. banana

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

10. flower

Fact: ______________________________________________________

Opinion: ____________________________________________________

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.