I am small.

I am most often a dark color.

I am a food.

I am sweet.

I am good for you.

You can eat me just as I am for a snack.

You can mix me with nuts for a snack.

You can bake me in cookies or cake.
I am a raisin.

You can put me in pie or bread. You might even find some of me in your box of cereal.

I used to be a grape! Then someone dried me.

Written by Linda Anderson

For the complete collection of “What am I?” challenge puzzles, please visit SuperTeacherWorksheets.com.
Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
I am small. I am most often a dark color.

I am a food. I am sweet. I am good for you.

You can eat me just as I am for a snack. You can mix me with nuts for a snack. You can bake me in cookies or cake. You can put me in pie or bread. You might even find some of me in your box of cereal.

I have not always been what I am today. I used to be a grape! Then someone dried me. What am I?
What Am I?

By Linda Billberg Andersen

I am small. I am most often a dark color.

I am a food. I am sweet. I am good for you.

You can eat me just as I am for a snack. You can mix me with nuts for a snack. You can bake me in cookies or cake. You can put me in pie or bread. You might even find some of me in your box of cereal.

I have not always been what I am today. I used to be a grape! Then someone dried me. What am I?

Answer: I am a raisin.