I am a type of home.

What color am I?
I am often red, white, or brown.

Do boys and girls live in me? No, boys and girls do not live in me.

Do Moms and Dads live in me? No, moms and dads do not live in me.
I am a barn.

What does live in me? Sheep or goats may live in me. Cows or pigs may live in me. Cats and mice may live in me.

I have very large doors. There is often lots of hay in me.
Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
What Am I?

By Linda Billberg Andersen

I am a type of home.

What color am I? I am often red, white, or brown.

Do boys and girls live in me? No, boys and girls do not live in me.

Do Moms and Dads live in me? No, moms and dads do not live in me.

Do grandmas and grandpas live in me? No, grandmas and grandpas do not live in me.

What does live in me? Sheep or goats may live in me. Cows or pigs may live in me. Cats and mice may live in me.

What am I?
I am a type of home.

What color am I? I am often red, white, or brown.

Do boys and girls live in me? No, boys and girls do not live in me.

Do Moms and Dads live in me? No, moms and dads do not live in me.

Do grandmas and grandpas live in me? No, grandmas and grandpas do not live in me either.

What does live in me? Sheep or goats may live in me. Cows or pigs may live in me. Cats and mice may live in me.

What am I?

Answer: I am a barn.