I can be big or little. I can be 100 years old or brand new.

I can be many different colors. I am often white, yellow, gray, blue, green, or brown.

People usually make me from wood or bricks. But, people have also made me from things such as mud, ice, or glass.

I come in many different types. I can be a cabin, a castle, or a cottage. I can be an igloo, a mansion, or a villa.
People live in me. I help to keep them warm, dry, safe, and happy.

I have different names in other languages. In Spanish, I am called a ‘casa.’ In French, I am called a ‘heim.’ In German I am a ‘domicile.’

I am a home (or house).
I can be big or little. I can be 100 years old or brand new.

I can be many different colors. I am often white, yellow, gray, blue, green, or brown.

People usually make me from wood or bricks. But, people have also made me from things such as mud, ice, or glass.

I come in many different varieties. I can be a cabin, a castle, or a cottage. I can be an igloo, a mansion, or a villa.

I have different names in other languages. In Spanish, I am called a ‘casa.’ In French, I am called a ‘heim.’ In German I am a ‘domicile.’

People live in me. I help to keep them warm, dry, safe, and happy.

What am I?
I can be big or little. I can be 100 years old or brand new.

I can be many different colors. I am often white, yellow, gray, blue, green, or brown.

People usually make me from wood or bricks. But, people have also made me from things such as mud, ice, or glass.

I come in many different varieties. I can be a cabin, a castle, or a cottage. I can be an igloo, a mansion, or a villa.

I have different names in other languages. In Spanish, I am called a 'casa.' In French, I am called a ‘heim.’ In German I am a ‘domicile.’

People live in me. I help to keep them warm, dry, safe, and happy.

What am I?

Answer: I am a home (or house).