

Who am I?

Monday's
Clue

I am a famous man from United States history.

I was born in Boston in 1734.

Who am I?

Tuesday's
Clue

I worked as a goldsmith and silversmith, making fine items from gold and silver. I also made church bells from copper. Some of my church bells still ring in churches today.

E-5

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Who am I?

Clue

I involved myself in political causes and helped to organize and participated in the Boston Tea Party in 1774.

E-5

Who am I?

Thursday's
Clue

Perhaps I could be called the "Marvelous Messenger," "Competent Courier," or "Heroic Horseman." Some of my most important work occurred when I was hired by the Boston Committee of Correspondence and the Massachusetts Committee of Safety. I rode a horse from my home in Boston to such places as New York and Philadelphia to deliver messages.

E-5

Who am I?

Friday's
Clue

On April 18, 1775, my employer instructed me to ride to Lexington, Massachusetts to warn two men that British troops were planning to arrest them. I warned colonists all along the way to Lexington that the British army planned to attack. I successfully warned the two men.

E-5

Who am I?

Bonus
Clue

I did a wide variety of work in my life, including dentistry. I cleaned people's teeth and provided them with false teeth. I made the false teeth from walrus ivory (walrus teeth) and teeth from other animals!

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

I am Paul Revere.

E-5

Written by Linda Anderson

For the complete collection of "Who am I?" challenge puzzles, please visit SuperTeacherWorksheets.com.

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who Am I?

By Linda Andersen

I am a famous man from United States history. I was born in Boston in 1734.

I did a wide variety of work in my life, including dentistry. I cleaned people's teeth and provided them with false teeth. I made the false teeth from walrus ivory (walrus teeth) and teeth from other animals!

I worked as a goldsmith and silversmith, making fine items from gold and silver. I also made church bells from silver. Some of my church bells still ring in churches today.

I inv
Boston Tec
Perf

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

ed in the er," or

"Heroic Horseman." Some of my most important work occurred when I was hired by the Boston Committee of Correspondence and the Massachusetts Committee of Safety. I rode a horse from my home in Boston to such places as New York and Philadelphia to deliver messages.

On April 18, 1775, my employer instructed me to ride to Lexington, Massachusetts to warn two men that British troops were planning to arrest them. I warned colonists all along the way to Lexington that the British army planned to attack. I successfully warned the two men.

Who am I? Do you know my first and last name?

Who Am I?

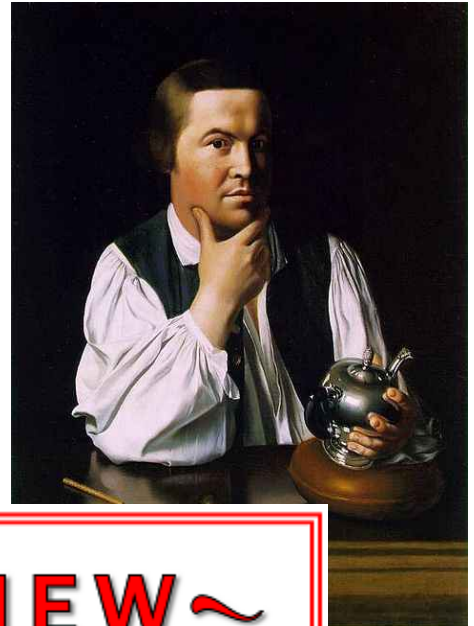

By Linda Andersen

I am a famous man from United States history. I was born in Boston in 1734.

I did a wide variety of work in my life, including dentistry. I cleaned people's teeth and provided them with false teeth. I made the false teeth from walrus ivory (walrus teeth) and teeth from other animals!

I worked as a goldsmith and silversmith, making fine items from gold and silver. I also made church bells from copper. I worked in churches and in the city.

I invented the Boston Tea Party.

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Perhaps I could be called the "marvelous messenger," "Competent Courier," or "Heroic Horseman." Some of my most important work occurred when I was hired by the Boston Committee of Correspondence and the Massachusetts Committee of Safety. I rode a horse from my home in Boston to such places as New York and Philadelphia to deliver messages.

On April 18, 1775, my employer instructed me to ride to Lexington, Massachusetts to warn two men that British troops were planning to arrest them. I warned colonists all along the way to Lexington that the British army planned to attack. I successfully warned the two men.

Who am I? Do you know my first and last name?

Answer: Paul Revere