

What am I?

Monday's
Clue

You can find a lot of me in the world. I do not always look the same. I can be different colors depending on where you find me. I am often

What am I?

Tuesday's
Clue

I am very useful. People make bricks from me. They melt me to make glass. They use me to build roads.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

What am I?

Wednesday's
Clue

I am made of small pieces of rocks, shells, or other hard materials.

B-3

What am I?

Thursday's
Clue

Look closely at an hour glass and you'll see me.

B-3

What am I?

Friday's
Clue

Children love to play in me. I am often at their playgrounds. If children fall in me they will not easily get hurt. Many children have a box of

What am I?

Bonus
Clue

Children play in me at the beach. They build mounds and castles. They write names and numbers in me.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

What am I?

Answer

I am sand.

B-3

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

I know it!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What Am I?

By Linda Andersen

You can find a lot of me in the world.

I do not always look the same. I can be different colors depending on where you find me. I am often tan, black, white, or light pink.

Do you like watermelon? Watermelon likes to grow in soil that has me in it.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

me they will not easily get hurt.

Many children have a box of me in their yards. They drive toy cars, tractors, and trucks through me.

Children play in me at the beach. They build mounds and castles. They write names and numbers in me.

What am I?

What Am I?

By Linda Andersen

You can find a lot of me in the world.

I do not always look the same. I can be different colors depending on where you find me. I am often tan, black, white, or light pink.

Do you like watermelon? Watermelon likes to grow in soil that has me in it.

I am very useful. People make bricks from me. They melt me to make glass.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Many children have a box of me in their yards. They drive toy cars, tractors, and trucks through me.

Children play in me at the beach. They build mounds and castles. They write names and numbers in me.

What am I?

Answer: I am sand.