

What am I?

Monday's
Clue

I am a place. Summer here is October through February. Winter is March through September.

In winter, it is dark nearly all of the time. In December and January it can be light up to twenty hours a day.

E-3

What am I?

Tuesday's
Clue

I am not owned by a single country. I am governed by a treaty. Over forty nations have agreed to this treaty. The treaty states that I am to be used for peaceful purposes only. No military action should occur on me.

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Wh

Clue

I am not owned by a single country. I am governed by a treaty. Over forty nations have agreed to this treaty. The treaty states that I am to be used for peaceful purposes only. No military action should occur on me.

E-3

Wh

Thursday's
Clue

I have many mountains. Mount Vinson is my highest mountain. Many of my mountains are at least partly buried by ice.

I have lakes too. But, don't think about going swimming or boating if you visit! My lakes are located under very thick sheets of ice.

E-3

What am I?

Friday's
Clue

You will not see bears, deer, horses, cats, robins, turtles, or most kinds of animals here. You will, however, see penguins. Four kinds of penguins live here: the adelic, emperor, chinstrap, and gentoo.

You may see a few people if you visit. Children have lived here sometimes; a few have even been born here. No one lives here for very long. It is too cold!

E-3

What am I?

Bonus
Clue

The average temperature is -56 degrees Fahrenheit. An ice sheet covers most of me.

I am a continent, or one of the great divisions of land on the earth.

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Wh

I am Antarctica.

E-3

Written by Linda Anderson

For the complete collection of "What am I?" challenge puzzles, please visit SuperTeacherWorksheets.com.

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

W

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

What Am I?

By Linda Andersen

I am a place. Summer here is October through February. Winter is March through September.

In winter, it is dark nearly all of the time. In December and January it can be light up to twenty hours a day.

I am not owned by a single country. I am governed by a treaty. Over forty nations have agreed to this treaty. The treaty states that I am to be used for peaceful purposes only. No military action should occur on me.

I have many mountains. Mount Vinson is my highest mountain. Many of my mountains

I have lakes are

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

You

visit! My imals

here. You will, however, see penguins. Four kinds of penguins live here: the adelic, emperor, chinstrap, and gentoo.

You may see a few people if you visit. Children have lived here sometimes; a few have even been born here. No one lives here for very long. It is too cold!

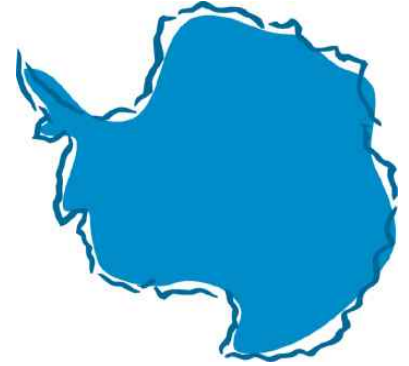

The average temperature is -56 degrees Fahrenheit. An ice sheet covers most of me.

I am a continent, or one of the great divisions of land on the earth.

What am I?

What Am I?

By Linda Andersen

I am a place. Summer here is October through February. Winter is March through September.

In winter, it is dark nearly all of the time. In December and January it can be light up to twenty hours a day.

I am not owned by a single country. I am governed by a treaty. Over forty nations have agreed to this treaty. The treaty states that I am to be used for peaceful purposes only. No military action should occur on me.

I have mountains

I have lakes are lakes

~ PREVIEW ~
Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

visit! My

You will not see bears, deer, horses, cats, robins, turtles, or most kinds of animals here. You will, however, see penguins. Four kinds of penguins live here: the adelic, emperor, chinstrap, and gentoo.

You may see a few people if you visit. Children have lived here sometimes; a few have even been born here. No one lives here for very long. It is too cold!

The average temperature is -56 degrees Fahrenheit. An ice sheet covers most of me.

I am a continent, or one of the great divisions of land on the earth.

What am I?

Answer: Antarctica