

Who am I?

Monday's
Clue

Many things have been named after me, such as streets, a city, a glacier, a peninsula, a highway, and mountains!

Who am I?

Tuesday's
Clue

Do you remember what happened on April 14, 1865? That's the day that President Abraham Lincoln was killed. That very same night someone also tried to kill me. A man entered my bedroom and stabbed me in the face and neck. I was wearing a neck brace because of an accident I had suffered several days before. That brace saved me from death!

E-4

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Who am I?

Clue

I was born in New York and worked there as a lawyer. I served as a United States Senator from New York and as the twelfth governor of New York.

E-4

Who am I?

Wednesday's
Clue

I served as the secretary of state under Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson.

E-4

Who am I?

Friday's
Clue

As secretary of state I did the work that made me most famous; I purchased Alaska, a place of rich natural resources and beauty, for the United States.

The United States paid only two cents an acre for the land! Even so, people thought the purchase was a terrible mistake. They thought that Alaska was a worthless land. They made up silly names for Alaska, such as Icebergia, Seward's Folly, and Seward's Icebox.

E-4

Who am I?

Bonus
Clue

I was known for being opposed to slavery. I was a bold opponent of the Fugitive Slave Act. This act said that all runaway slaves must be returned to their owners.

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

I am William Seward.

E-4

Written by Linda Anderson

For the complete collection of "Who am I?" challenge puzzles, please visit SuperTeacherWorksheets.com.

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

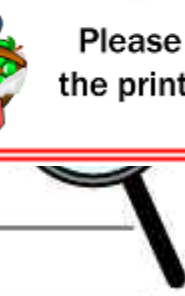

Answer: _____

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who am I?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer: _____

Who Am I?

By Linda Andersen

Many things have been named after me, such as streets, a city, a glacier, a peninsula, a highway, and mountains!

Do you remember what happened on April 14, 1865? That's the day that President Abraham Lincoln was killed. That very same night someone also tried to kill me. A man entered my bedroom and stabbed me in the face and neck. I was wearing a neck brace because of an accident I had suffered several days before. That brace saved me from death!

I was born
Senator from

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

tes

I was known

Slave Act.

This act said that all runaway slaves must be returned to their owners.

I served as the secretary of state under Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson. As secretary of state I did the work that made me most famous; I purchased Alaska, a place of rich natural resources and beauty, for the United States. The United States paid only two cents an acre for the land! Even so, people thought the purchase was a terrible mistake. They thought that Alaska was a worthless land. They made up silly names for Alaska, such as Icebergia, Seward's Folly and Seward's Icebox.

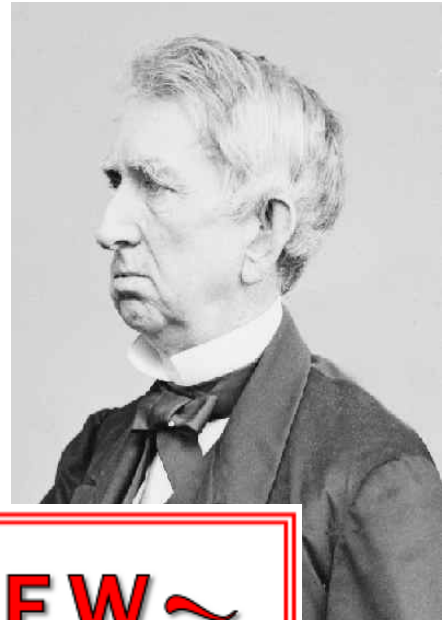

Who am I? Do you know my first and last name?

Who Am I?

By Linda Andersen

Many things have been named after me, such as streets, a city, a glacier, a peninsula, a highway, and mountains!

Do you remember what happened on April 14, 1865? That's the day that President Abraham Lincoln was killed. That very same night someone also tried to kill me. A man entered my bedroom and stabbed me in the face and neck. I was wearing a neck brace because of an accident I saved me

I was born
Senator from

A red-bordered box containing a cartoon superhero character on the left and the text "PREVIEW" in large red letters in the center. Below the word "PREVIEW" is the text "Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet." in black.

PREVIEW
Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

tes

I was known for being against slavery. I was a bold opponent of the Fugitive Slave Act. This act said that all runaway slaves must be returned to their owners.

I served as the secretary of state under Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson. As secretary of state I did the work that made me most famous; I purchased Alaska, a place of rich natural resources and beauty, for the United States. The United States paid only two cents an acre for the land! Even so, people thought the purchase was a terrible mistake. They thought that Alaska was a worthless land. They made up silly names for Alaska, such as Icebergia, Seward's Folly and Seward's Icebox.

Who am I? Do you know my first and last name?

Answer: William Seward