Commats to Separate Items in a Series

Use commas to separate more than two items or phrases in a series.

examples:
My favorite sports are soccer, basketball, baseball, and tennis.

Should we practice pitching, hitting, or throwing?

I can dribble a basketball, hit a baseball with a bat, and even kick a soccer ball into a net.

Rewrite each sentence. Use capital letters at the beginning of sentences and proper nouns. End each sentence with the correct punctuation mark. Add commas to separate the items or phrases in a series.

1. we will need clubs balls and tees to play golf

2. do you think jason abby or santiago might play flag football with us

3. abdul ran over the bridge past the school and across the field

4. kayla michael and I are the best hockey players on the team.
Commas to Separate Items in a Series

5. you will need to practice jumping running dribbling shooting and passing

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

6. andrea stretched on the driveway jogged around the block and then rode her bike on the trail

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

7. would you rather be a pitcher a catcher a first baseman or an outfielder

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

9. climb up onto the diving board jump in the water and swim across the pool

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

10. you will need a football a helmet and shoulder pads

____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________
Commas to Separate Items in a Series

Use commas to separate two or more items or phrases in a series.

extamples:
My favorite sports are soccer, basketball, baseball, and tennis.

Should we practice pitching, hitting, or throwing?

I can dribble a basketball, hit a baseball with a bat, and even kick a soccer ball into a net.

Rewrite each sentence. Use capital letters at the beginning of sentences and proper nouns. End each sentence with the correct punctuation mark. Add commas to separate the items or phrases in a series.

1. we will need clubs balls and tees to play golf

   We will need clubs, balls, and tees to play golf.

2. do you think jason abby or santiago might play flag football with us

   Do you think Jason, Abby, or Santiago might play flag football with us?

3. abdul ran over the bridge past the school and across the field

   Abdul ran over the bridge, past the school, and across the field.

4. kayla michael and I are the best hockey players on the team.

   Kayla, Michael, and I are the best hockey players on the team.
5. you will need to practice jumping, running, dribbling, shooting, and passing.

6. Andrea stretched in the driveway, jogged around the block, and then rode her bike on the trail.

7. Would you rather be a pitcher, a catcher, a first baseman, or an outfielder?

8. Coach Peter told us to stretch, do twenty push-ups, and then run across the field.

9. Climb up onto the diving board, jump in the water, and swim across the pool.

10. You will need a football, a helmet, and shoulder pads.