The words berth and birth sound very similar but have different meanings.

A berth may refer to the space where a ship is anchored at a dock or wharf.
A berth may also refer to a small bed or bunk on a ship or train.

examples: The tugboat was docked at its usual berth.
Each berth in the train was barely large enough to fit a grown man.

Birth refers to a baby coming into the world or the beginning of new life examples: Mrs. Roycroft gave birth to a healthy baby boy.

Mavis needed a copy of his birth certificate.

Write the word berth or birth in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. The woman gave ______________________ to twins.
2. Ranveer slept on a small ______________________ on his overnight train journey to Jaipur.
3. What is your date of _____________________?
4. We found the cruise ship docked at the last ______________________.
5. A mammal gives ______________________ to live young.
6. Even though it was small, the sailor’s ______________________ was comfortable.
7. Our motorboat only needed a narrow _____________________ at the wharf.
8. Cindy congratulated her coworker on the _____________________ of her son.
9. Emil is Swedish by ______________________.
10. The ______________________ rate in our country is higher this year than last year.
The words berth and birth sound very similar but have different meanings.

A berth may refer to the space where a ship is anchored at a dock or wharf. A berth may also refer to a small bed or bunk on a ship or train.

Examples: The tugboat was docked at its usual berth. Each berth in the train was barely large enough to fit a grown man.

Birth refers to a baby coming into the world or the beginning of new life.

1. The woman gave birth to twins.
2. Ranveer slept on a small berth on his overnight train journey to Jaipur.
3. What is your date of birth?
4. We found the cruise ship docked at the last berth.
5. A mammal gives birth to live young.
6. Even though it was small, the sailor’s berth was comfortable.
7. Our motorboat only needed a narrow berth at the wharf.
8. Cindy congratulated her coworker on the birth of her son.
9. Emil is Swedish by birth.
10. The birth rate in our country is higher this year than last year.