The words pedal and peddle sound the same, but they have different meanings.

The word pedal can refer to a foot-operated lever that propels a bicycle. It can also refer to a lever that operates the gas or brake on a motorized vehicle.

examples: Charlie put his foot on the pedal of his bike.
Use the same foot to operate both the gas pedal and brake pedal.

The word peddle refers to selling items by going door-to-door or place-to-place.

examples: The salesman tried to peddle his merchandise at local fairs.
Brandon’s dad became annoyed when the merchant tried to peddle his cheaply made model airplanes to Brandon.

Write the word pedal or peddle in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

5. The traveling salesman found clever ways to ________________ his goods.

6. Uncle Pete spent ten years trying to ________________ his wood-carved figurines across the Midwest.

7. Fritz’s bicycle has a sticky left ________________.

8. “Which one is the gas ________________?” Anusha asked.

9. A traveling merchant tried to ________________ his wares wherever he went.

10. Oh no! Davie’s foot slipped off his bike ________________, and he fell off.
The words pedal and peddle sound the same, but they have different meanings.

The word pedal can refer to a foot-operated lever that propels a bicycle. It can also refer to a lever that operates the gas or brake on a motorized vehicle.

examples:
Charlie put his foot on the pedal of his bike.
Use the same foot to operate both the gas pedal and brake pedal.

The word peddle refers to selling items by going door-to-door or place-to-place.

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

10. Oh no! Davie’s foot slipped off his bike pedal, and he fell off.