The words site and sight may sound like similar words, but they have very different meanings.

A site can refer to a website.
A site can also refer to an area of land where a monument, building, or town is built.

examples: Evans read an interesting article on his favorite site.
The hospital will be built on a site near City Hall.

Sight refers to a person's ability to see.

Examples: Tiffany wears glasses to improve her sight.
I watched the airplane in the sky until it was out of sight.

Write the word site or sight in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. I looked at a blueprint of the construction ________________.
2. Abib checked his favorite weather ________________ to see the forecast.
3. Grandma Nora doesn’t have good ________________ anymore.
4. “I don’t want to lose ________________ of you,” Mom told Jayden.
5. The veterans’ memorial ________________ will be on the waterfront.
6. Mayor Rothschild cut the ribbon at the new school ________________
7. That sunset over the lake last night was a beautiful ________________.
8. The ________________ where the daycare is being built used to be an open field.
9. If you have 20/20 vision, it means you have very good ________________.
10. Paul wrote down the web address of the ________________ he used in his research project.
The words site and sight may sound like similar words, but they have very different meanings.

A site can refer to a website.
A site can also refer to an area of land where a monument, building, or town is built.

Examples:
- Evans read an interesting article on his favorite site.
- The hospital will be built on a site near City Hall.

Sight refers to a person's ability to see.

Examples:
- Tiffany wears glasses to improve her sight.
- I watched the airplane in the sky until it was out of sight.

Write the word site or sight in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. I looked at a blueprint of the construction site.
2. Abib checked his favorite weather site to see the forecast.
3. Grandma Nora doesn't have good sight anymore.
4. "I don't want to lose sight of you," Mom told Jayden.
5. The veterans' memorial site will be on the waterfront.
6. Mayor Rothschild cut the ribbon at the new school site.
7. That sunset over the lake last night was a beautiful sight.
8. The site where the daycare is being built used to be an open field.
9. If you have 20/20 vision, it means you have very good sight.
10. Paul wrote down the web address of the site he used in his research project.